FOR THE WEEK ENDING AUGUST 16TH, 1855.

REVIEW OF THE WILMINGTON MARKET Turpentine-Ruled steady at last Thursday's quotation up to Tuesday when the price advanced 5 cents on yellow dip, with sales at $2 65 $280 lbs .- at which the market is now firm, with a fair demand from distillers. The sales for the week just ended foot up 2.325 bbls., as follows: Virgin. Yellow dip. Thursday 150...$2 60.....$1 30 Friday..... 425..... 300.... Saturday 743..... Monday..... Tuesday.... 145..... Wednesday. 322..... 240..... 2 65..... Sales made this morning as above. In Virgin we hear of no sales, but quote it at the same price as yellow dip, subject to a neat uniform edition, with other of Lover's works. For a deduction if dry or mixed. SPIRITS TURPENTINE-The market ruled inactive with a decline of 12 cents on last Thursday's quotation (39 cents) up to Tuesday, when there was considerable animation in cents. Subscriptions received by the year at $5. the market, the transactions reaching fully 3.414 bbls, at 40 August 16th. S. W. WHITAKER the market, the transactions reaching fully 3,414 bbls. at 40 cents—being an advance for the week of 1 cent. The supply remaining in first hands is light.
